

NITK celebrates National Unity Day

The Hindu Bureau

MANGALURU

The National Institute of Technology-Karnataka (NITK) at Surathkal celebrated National Unity Day – Rashtriya Ekta Diwas – on Friday to mark the 150th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.

As directed by the Ministry of Education, Government of India, NITK-Surathkal observed Unity Week from October 25 to 31, organising a series of events to promote unity and solidarity within the National Institute of Technology-Karnataka organised Run for Unity to mark the 150th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel on Friday, at Surathkal in Mangaluru.

campus community.

On October 31, the institute hosted a Unity Run and Unity Pledge as part of the concluding day's activities. The Unity Run saw enthusiastic participation from over 700 individuals.