

M'luru's first N-Gen post office to be set up today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

@Mangaluru

THE Department of Posts will inaugurate Mangaluru's first state-of-the-art N-Gen post office at the NITK campus in Surathkal on March 30.

The facility is a revamped Srinivasnagar sub-post office on the NITK campus and will be inaugurated by K. Prakash, Chief Postmaster General of the Karnataka Circle, Bengaluru. This will be the fourth N-Gen post office in Karnataka, following two in Bengaluru and one in Raichur, and the first of its kind in Mangaluru.

Moving beyond the traditional counter-only model, the Srinivasnagar N-Gen post office has been transformed into a vibrant, multi-functional space.

Features include free high-speed Wi-Fi, self-booking kiosks, modern writing ledges, a relaxation lobby and library corner, a dedicated gaming zone, complimentary tea and coffee, and water dispensers, a selfie point featuring a unique high-five mural between a traditional post box and a Gen-Z student.