

INBRIEF

NITK organises blood donation camp

The National Institute of Technology - Karnataka (NIT-K), Surathkal organised a blood donation camp on its premises on Saturday. It was to support blood shortage of three hospitals - KMC Hospital, Government Wenlock Hospital and Government Lady Goschen Hospital in Mangaluru. More than 200 units of blood was collected in the camp. Prasad Krishana, Director (Additional Charge), staff members and students took part.